Please join us for the final event in Schaffer Library’s 50th year anniversary celebration. A presentation by Jeremy B. Dibbell (Union Class of 2004) on Thursday November 10 at 5 pm in the Phi Beta Kappa Room on the 2nd floor of Schaffer Library.

By recreating the libraries of early Americans, or using mapping software to visualize subscriber lists, modern readers have the chance to increase their historical awareness of books and readership, while simultaneously obtaining useful data and statistics that are easily accessible to scholars of the book, biographers, and other readers.

Jeremy is the Librarian for Rare Books and Social Media at LibraryThing a social network.
